No. C-08-00322 RMW

ORDER CONVERTING ORDER TO SHOW
CAUSE HEARING TO A CASE
MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE

[Re Docket No. 15]

On July 25, 2008, the court issued an order to show cause ordering defendants to appear on August 22, 2008 at 9:00 a.m. to show cause why default and default judgment should not be entered against them for failure to appear at two separate case management conferences ("CMCs"). The show cause hearing was moved on the court's own motion to September 5, 2008. On August 19, 2008, defendants' counsel submitted a declaration explaining that his failure to appear at the first CMC was due to a calendaring error and his failure to appear at the second CMC was the result of having hearings scheduled in two separate courts (one here and the other in Redwood City) with insufficient time between them.

1 The court finds defendants have presented sufficient cause to avoid the entry of default and
2 default judgment at this time. The court hereby converts the order to show cause hearing currently
3 scheduled for 9:00 a.m. on September 5, 2008 to a case management conference, which will be
4 heard on the court's 10:30 calendar.

5 To be clear, unless otherwise stipulated or changed by the court's own order, the parties are
6 now to appear on Friday, September 5, 2008 at 10:30 a.m. in courtroom 6 of this court for a case
7 management conference. In advance of that case management conference, the parties shall file a
8 joint case management statement no later than August 29, 2008. Further failures by defendants to 9 appear at scheduled hearings or conferences may result in sanctions including attorney's fees or 10 entry of default or default judgment against defendants.
